PUBLISHER'S NOTE: Generally, a judgment in an Oregon civil matter not involving child support or spousal support expires 10 years after its filing. A certificate of extension filed after the date on which the judgment remedies for such a judgment expire has no effect. The expiration date of a judgment involving child support or spousal support may be calculated differently. The publisher recommends review of Oregon Revised Statutes which govern judgments, their extension and satisfaction, and related matters. Use S-N Form No. 1196 to record a lien record abstract.
